IN SHELLS AND BARGES

Activity Among Myrtles and Healanis.

Both the Myrtle and Healan Boat Clubs have settled down to hard, earnest work, preparing for the championship races at Pearl Harbor on the 4th of July. Daily, four or five four-oared shells, and several six-oared barges, with, of course, the ever present pair oars in which the green hands are coached, may be seen upon the harbor between the hours of 5 and 6:30 p. m., excellent work being done by both the clubs.

The Myrtles have a number of new men, some of them of great promise, while the faces of many of their old warriors may be seen in the boats, among them "Pete" Lishman, "Oily" Sorenson, "Bill" Soper and Lyle. It is rumored that the Myrtle Senior crew will consist of the above mentioned four, and if so it will be a hard one to beat, for they are tried veterans.

Just at present the chances seem to favor the Healanis for both races, as they have the victorious senior crew of 1901, in Fred Damon, Sam Walker, Dan Renear and Paul Jarret, and have only lost one of the junior crew who last July almost distanced their rivals. The three old men of this crew now rowing are Bert Webster, Harry Murray and C. H. Tracy, while among the new men there are several giving excellent promise, among them A. McDuffie, B. F. Heilborn and P. K. Raymond, any one of whom should be better than the man they have lost. There is a feeling of confidence among the wearers of the Blue that may result disastrously, for over-confidence has lost many a race. If the Fourth was next week the result would be easy to forecast, for, judging by present form, the Healanis would have an easy victory, but the final struggle will not take place for over two months, and with the material at hand it is more than probable that the Myrtles may work out a champion crew.

The Healanis will be quartered on the Peninsula during the final training in the Paris premises, the same cool, commodious quarters that they occupied last year. This afternoon between 4:30 and 6 o'clock there will be a great rally of the clans at the boat-house that flies the Blue Banner, Captain Church intending to send out three four-oared crews and a six-oared barge. A crowd of the club members are going down to lend their moral support. F. J. Church, Carl Rhodes and A. L. C. Atkinson have been coaching regularly, while F. W. Klebahn, who will act as head coach, goes down today for the first time. It is safe to say that never before in the history of rowing has so much enthusiasm been shown, and the sight of so many crews on the water must make a great impression upon sport-loving tourists who do not expect to find anything of the kind here in these distant isles of the Pacific.

ATHLETICS WITH THE CHRISTIANS

The first game this evening in the Young Men's Christian Association basketball league will be between the Spartans and the Blue Streaks. A start will be made at 7:30 o'clock. Following are the players and their positions:

Spartans—W. G. Johnson, R. S. Pierson, forwards; E. M. Cheatham, center; W. S. Bissley, J. Gorman, guards. Blue Streaks—A. E. Lutz, A. Blackman, forwards; W. E. Kerr, center; B. Heilborn, J. S. Boyle, guards.

At 8:15 p. m. the Five O'Clocks will play the Alohas, as follows:

Five O'Clocks—J. A. Templeton, J. B. Freitas, forwards; G. Ewald, center; P. J. Russell, H. M. Hepburn, guards. Alohas—A. McGurn, J. Laing, forwards; C. Gomes, center; G. Madeira, O. Oms, guards.

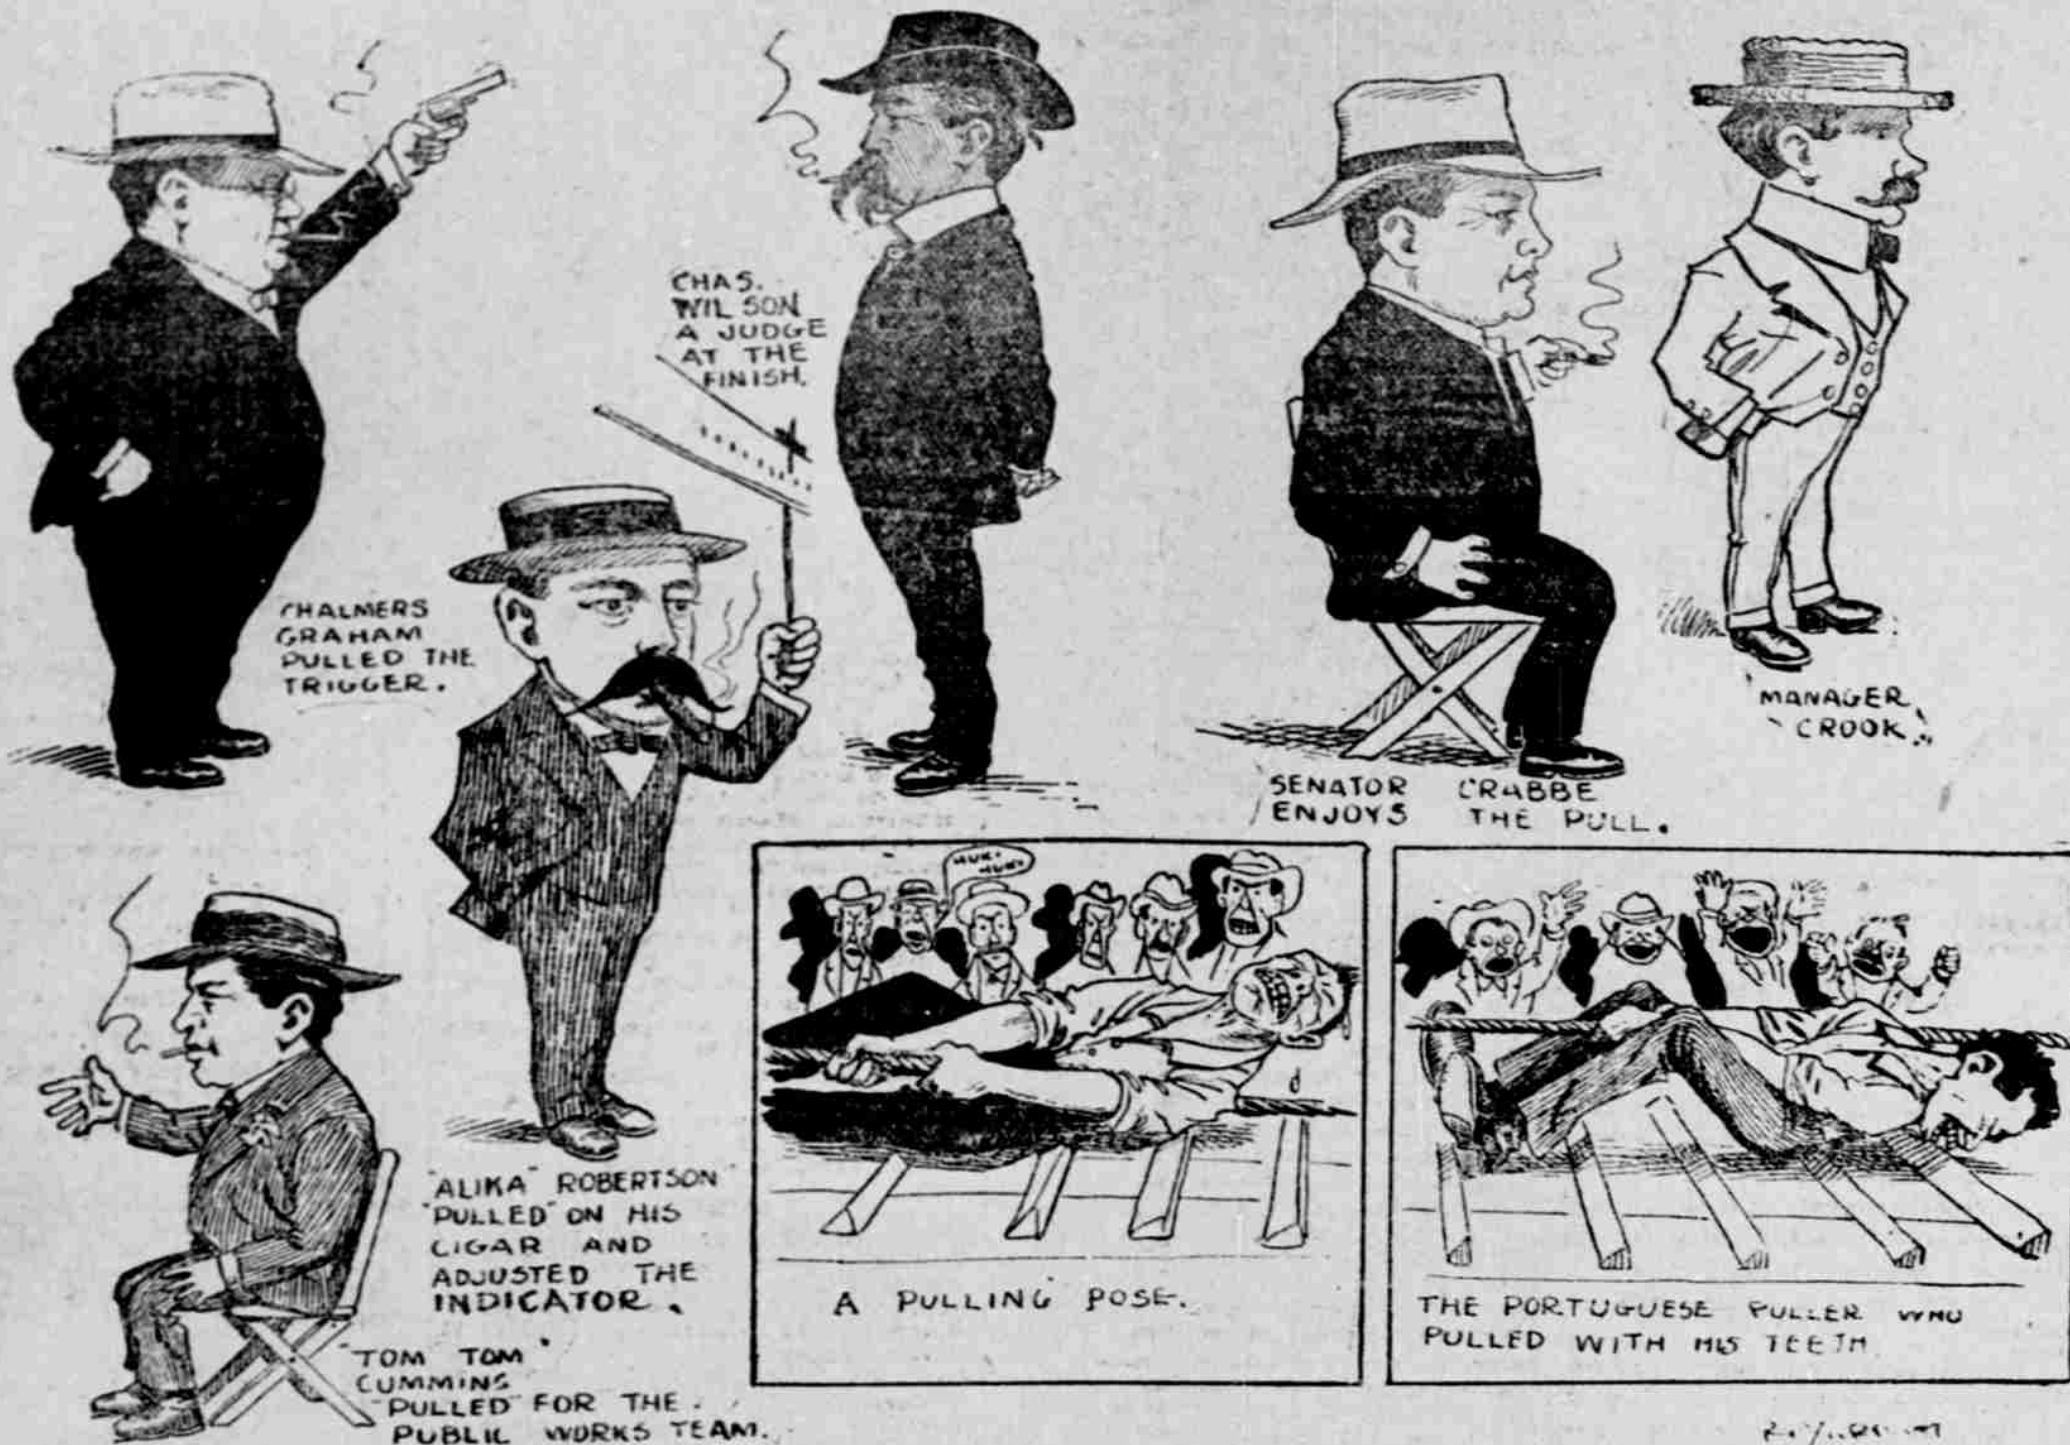

The Spartans were formerly the L. L.'s. They changed their name because the crowd guessed that it stood for Long Legged Lobsters.

The third and last indoor athletic contest will be held on June 2, and it is expected that new local records will be made in all the events. Already A. E. Lutz has done 2 feet 4 inches in the running springboard high jump, in practice. This is three inches better than the local record. All the leaders in the past two contests will take part in the next one, including W. W. Curtis, R. S. Pierson, Dan Falvey and J. Boyle.

The standing of the teams in the Young Men's Christian Association basketball league, figured up to date, is as follows:

		Goals
	W.	L.	for	against	pts.
Diamond Heads	1	0	12	7	100
Five O'Clocks...	1	0	14	13	100
Spartans	1	0	15	11	100
Blue Streaks.....	1	1	26	18	50
Alohas	1	2	38	41	33
Intermediates ..	0	2	29	56	...

AT THE TUG OF WAR

TENNIS GAMES PROMISE WELL

Tennis of high class, and for blood, too, will be the rule during the tournament which will be inaugurated next week, for there are honors to be won, and lost, and the competition promises to be of the very first interest. There will be nothing which will call for harder guessing than the men's singles.

Two years ago the Hawaiian Tennis Association put up a silver cup which was to become the property of any one winning it three times, not necessarily in consecutive order. Frank C. Atherton won the championship title in 1900 and in 1901, so he stands a fair chance of becoming the owner of the cup. Three weeks ago, however, in a Pacific Tennis Club tournament, William Roth, who has had two years' good practice on the Pacific Coast tennis courts, won the Alexander cup from Mr. Atherton, so from this it might appear that Roth had a chance mortgage on the cup this year. Only a few months ago on the Beretania Club courts, C. E. Elston had Roth running all over the courts and seemed to win handily from him. Of course every one remembers how Mr. Atherton beat Mr. Elston last year, and with these facts it is a guess as to the winner.

These are not the only players, however, who have a chance at the top, for men like W. F. Dillingham, Donald Ross, A. T. Brock, D. H. Hitchcock, A. Cunha, A. M. Nowell, when in practice, and they are trying hard to get in proper shape, cannot be overlooked in any tournament. This list is not complete, for J. Waterhouse, J. P. Cooke, P. M. Lansdale, E. A. Mott-Smith, E. A. Wodehouse, E. R. Adams and J. T. Irvine are all steady players, make good showing at the game, and are not beaten until the last point is scored.

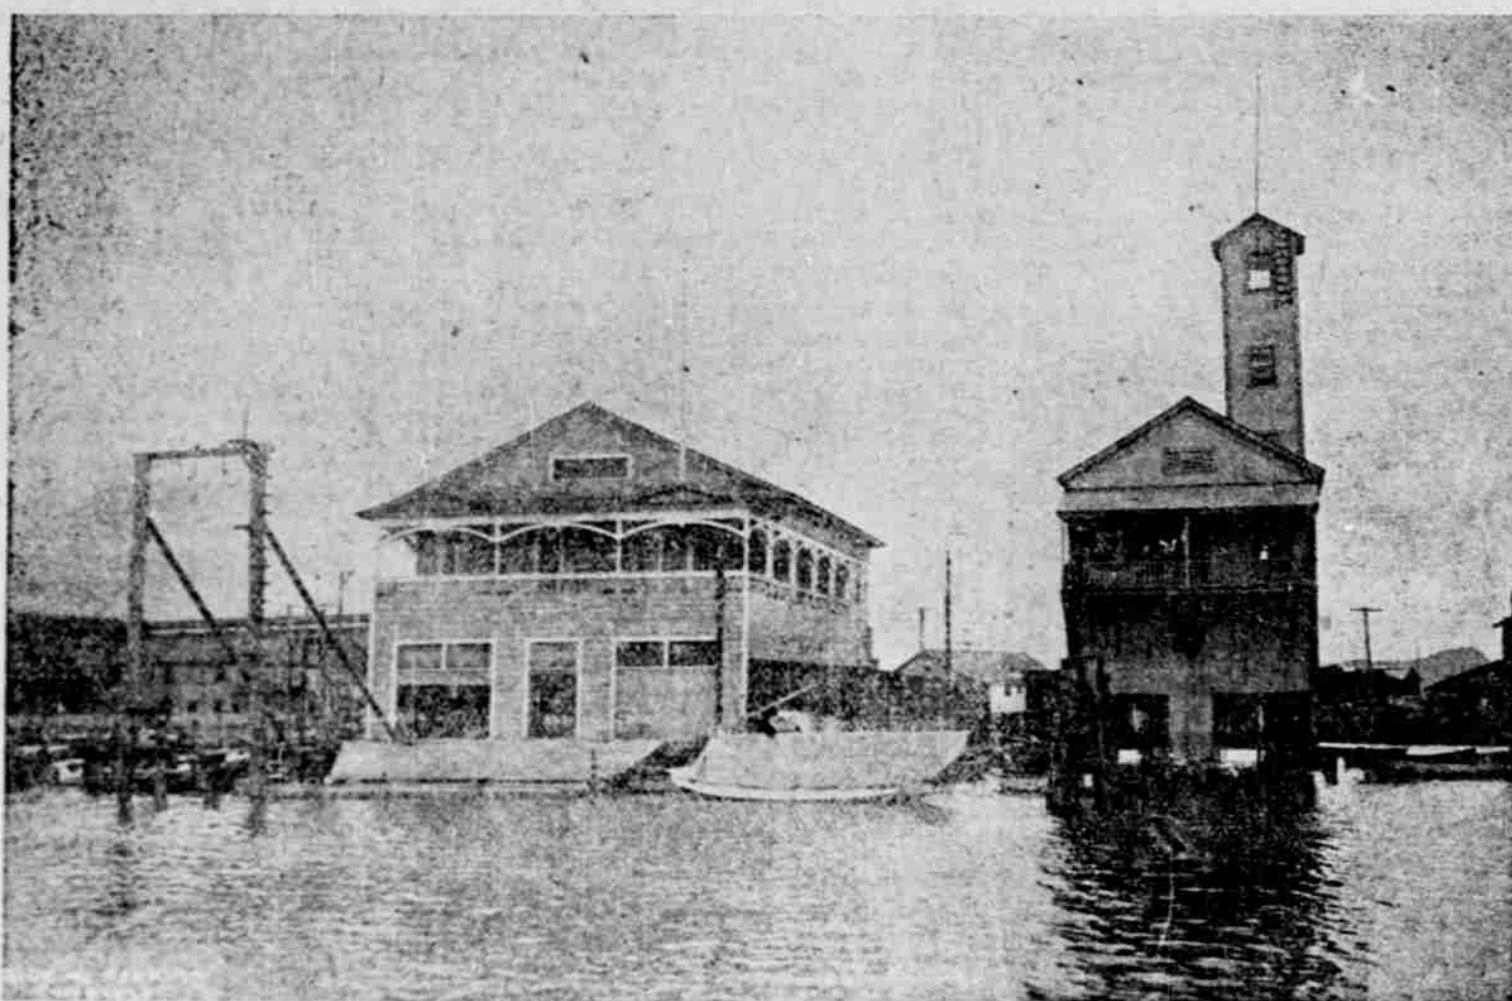

M. F. Prosser, of Lihue, Kauai.

should be induced to try conclusions with some of the best local players, for from what has been seen of his playing he would stand a fine chance of giving them a drubbing. He is in town now and might be persuaded to stay over next week and enter the tournament, for it would put new life into the sport.

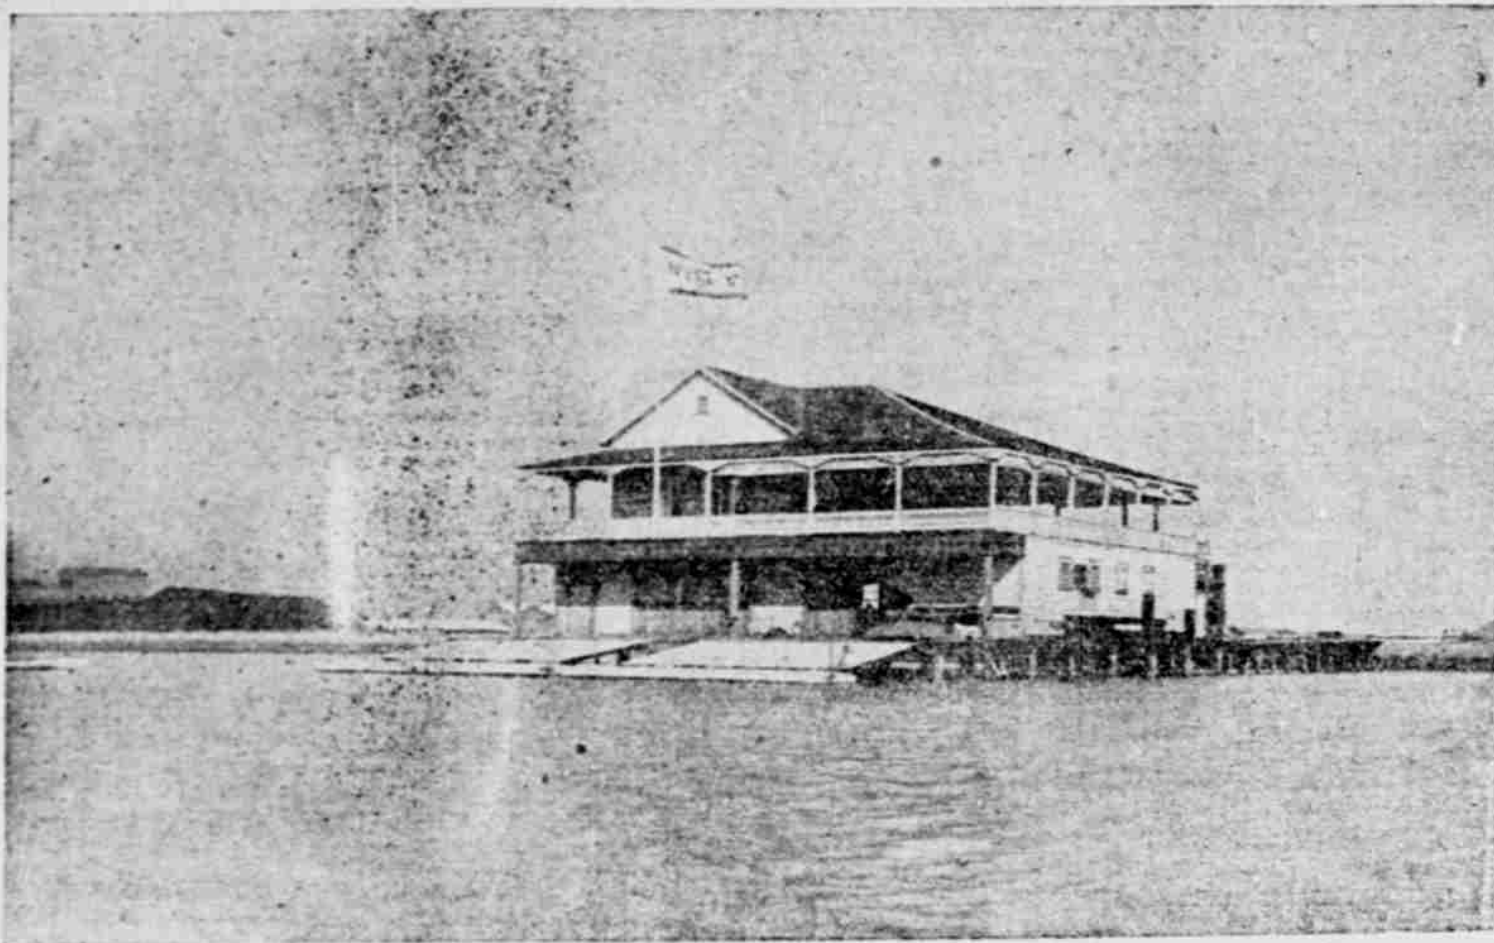

Some of the officers of the Albatross and Wheeling are devoted to the game and although handicapped by limited opportunities to practice, being away so much on sea service, if in port may enter the tournament. Both of the tennis clubs have extended invitations to them to use their courts and some have taken advantage of the privilege.

A good representative number of the best lady players are quietly but persistently getting into form. Mrs. R. Ivers, Mrs. H. Gunn, Miss L. Ward, Miss Horner, Miss Nina Adams, Miss Kitchen and Mrs. S. G. Wilder are constantly at practice. These players are quite evenly matched and some good close games will be the result. They will all participate in the ladies' singles, ladies' doubles and mixed doubles. Just how they will pair off for the ladies' doubles no one knows, but the mixed doubles will be about as follows: Mrs. S. G. Wilder with W. F. Dillingham, Mrs. R. Ivers with E. R. Adams, Mrs. H. Gunn with I. Dillingham, Miss N. Adams with D. H. Hitchcock, Miss Kitchen with William Roth, Miss L. Ward with C. E. Elston, and Miss Horner with A. M. Nowell. This means some fast tennis. The winners for the last three years in men's doubles have been E. R. Adams and A. T. Brock, and unless more practice is devoted to doubles than is being done at present, it would seem that the same pair should win again this time, simply on account of team work, a great factor in doubles. Some very strong combinations are mentioned, and especially are W. Roth and W. F. Dillingham, C. E. Elston and A. M. Nowell, C. H. Cooke and W. H.

WANTED A MANAGER

Joe Cohen Quits the Baseball League.

A merry spat is in progress between Manager Cohen of the Honolulu Baseball League and the other officers of the league. Cohen, it will be remembered, was appointed manager and his duties were specifically stated to be the supervision of the financial end of the league season.

At a meeting of the league held on Thursday night Cohen's duties were considerably curtailed and the collection of gate receipts transferred from him to the secretary-treasurer of the league. Cohen, the league ruled, would look after the bats, balls and grounds.

Mr. Cohen is very wroth at the peculiar treatment he has received and stated yesterday that after today's games he would forswear the league and all its works.

"I went up to the meeting on Thursday," said he to a reporter yesterday, "and arrived after my duties as manager had been changed. The league did not have the decency to apprise me of the changed conditions of my office and allowed me to sit through the meeting in complete ignorance of their action. There was a considerable discussion, however, as to who should endorse the complimentary tickets and the matter was taken out of my hands and given to Secretary Andrews to attend to."

Yesterday Cohen, as manager of the league, was applied to for complimentary tickets by the captains of the league teams and representatives of the press. He passed the matter up to the secretary-treasurer and the result is that no complimentary tickets have yet been issued.

"When I was asked to act as manager of the league," said Cohen yesterday, "both President Chillingworth and Secretary Andrews gave me a carte blanche to go ahead with arrangements as I thought best. After securing a ground and putting in lots of hard work in the interests of the league, I got turned down for no reason whatever. If they think that the league can be run by simply holding meetings, let them go ahead and try. I will have the ground in shape for this afternoon's games, and then it's all off."

The first games of the league will be played at Punahou this afternoon. At 1:30 o'clock the Honolulu Athletic Club will meet the Artillery, the line-up being as follows:

The umpires in today's games will be Chalmers Graham, Morris Keohokaloie, Lieutenant Newton and Solomon Mahelona.

THE UMPIRE WILL CALL OUT "HOVER"

The first match of the cricket season will be played at Makiki this afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock.

Standing of Tug of War Teams
The present standing of the teams is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pts.
Pacific Hardware	2	1	100
Public Works	1	0	100
Kani Ke Aus	1	1	50
Lumber Yards	1	1	50
Portuguese	1	1	50
All-Americans	0	1	...
Longshoremen	0	2	...

PACIFICS HEAD ALL THE TUGGERS

Tonight will be ladies' night at the tug-of-war and there will be a number of chairs provided for the fair sex in the Aala warehouse. The Honolulu Athletic Club band will render a specially selected program.

The first pull will be between the All-Americans and the 'Longshoremen, to be followed by a tussle between the Public Works team and the Portuguese.

The Scavengers will win from the Portuguese but the result of the first pull is hard to forecast. The old men of the beach should outlast the 'Yankees' and win, but it's a risky bet.

The pulls so far have resulted as follows:
April 26—Pacific Hardware defeated Portuguese; time, 24 minutes.
Kani Ke Aus defeated Longshoremen; time, 15 minutes.
April 23—Portuguese defeated All-Americans; time, 24 minutes.
Public Works defeated Lumber Yards; time, 17½ minutes.
May 1—Pacific Hardware defeated Kani Ke Aus; time, 19 minutes.
Lumbermen defeated Longshoremen; time, 31 minutes.
